Merge Dance Studio strives to provide a fun and encouraging learning environment through quality instruction and a varied class schedule. "Our classes have all been well received by local families and adults. We continue to hear how people are glad that a dance and fitness studio has opened up in this area. There is something for everyone on our schedule with many child, adult, and fitness classes to choose from", says owner Christa Campbell.

Merge Dance Studio opened this past summer and has already made an impact on the community. Their performance group, Merge Dance Company, has been busy performing throughout the area including at the StrEAT Food Festival, the Pretzel Park Fall Festival (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PhhNwaKINLl>), the PhilaU Thon, and the Mifflin School Community Festival. Merge Dance Studio also performed a flash mob at the 2012 Manayunk Arts Festival. Next up they will be performing at Manayunk's Tree Lighting Ceremony on Dec. 1, 2012, which runs from 6:00-7:30pm at Canal View Park. Owner, Christa Campbell, has also offered free dance classes throughout the community including at the Roxborough Library, Philadelphia University, and at the Mifflin School Community Festival with the East Falls Library, the Narberth Library, and several local schools coming up next. "We want everyone to experience the joy of dance and to see how much fun they can have by attending classes regularly at Merge Dance Studio", says Campbell. Dance is a great way to beat the winter blues, so don't let the winter weather keep you from taking class this year!
